Porter & Son exhibited at Ada last week, and as usual, swept everything before them. It's the same old story, nothing can stand before the superior merits of their instrument .

Other dealers have been knocked out so often that few of them have nerve enough left to make a display, when they know Porter & Son are going to The past week was an exceptionally good one. A number of fine sales were made at New Bremen, Celina and other neighboring points, the resuit of the fine showing made at Celina the week preceding. Capt. Bill Tingle, of Columbus

Grove, the editor-lawyer, whom everybody in Lima knows, purchased an Everett piano. Mr. Tingle is a fine musician and it didn't take him long to recognize that in the Everett he had a good thing.

Porter & Son have just added a Goodings. handsome Haines plano to their big Contractor Russell's Gang Remove stock, and they will sell it to you at a bargain. There's no use talking when you want a good thing you'l have to go to Porter & Son's.
